THE GANG WAS WITH US

Thieves Were Here in Force Sunday.

THEY ALL CAME VERY EARLY

And Helped Themselves to What They Could Find—Cigars and Tobacco. Together With Postage Stamps and Money Seemed to be Their Specialty—At One Place They Proved the Presence of a Sweet Tooth Prying Doors Open Was the Method Adopted.

Saturday night and Sunday morning was a happy time for a gang of thieves who swooped down upon the city, and helped themselves to what they could find, forcing their way in business houses and meeting with varying success.

The first robbery was committed at the saloon of Hague & Webber, in the opera house. It was about 12:15 when a party of men pried open a window on the alley, and forcing back the latch gained entrance. When once on the inside they helped themselves to cigars and other materials valued at $10. Since this is the second robbery within three weeks, and the entrance was forced in the same manner, it is believed that the same parties did both jobs.

They left the saloon by the back door, and walking into the alley approached the house of Mrs. Higgins nearby.
There they found a step ladder, and placed it against the building. This roused Mrs. Higgins, and she went to the window. Seeing the men, she talked with them, believing that they wanted to get in some of the various saloons in that vicinity. While she was thus engaged one of the gang went to Thompson's saloon nearby, and attempted to pry open the door with a jimmie. The woman cried out and the men left. Then Mrs. Higgins ran out to the Diamond, and accosting Adolph Joseph, who was standing on the street, told him that something was wrong, as she had heard the gang say they were going to Solomon & Stein's. Joseph hastily hunted Stein, and he went for the police. An attempt was made to enter the store, but when the door proved too strong for their efforts the crowd went to the rear of the Thompson building. Charley Seanor was in the store counting the receipts of the day when he heard some one at the rear window. He examined the place, but seeing only three men went back to work thinking that nothing was wrong. Meanwhile the police were on the lookout, but the crowd could not be found.

A short time afterward Officer Jennings was standing in the Diamond when he noticed two men in front of the door of Barnes' store. At first he imagined that the place was being looked up for the night; then seeing something suspicious he started across the street. Seeing him, the men took to their heels, and separating at Sixth street were out of sight in less than a minute. Examining the door, the officer found that some instrument had been inserted near the lock, and in a few moments the door would have been pried open.

The next place attacked was the store of A. W. King on Walnut street.
Here the gang used the same method employed at the other places during the night. A jimmie was used to pry open the door, and when once inside the robbers helped themselves.
Tobacco, cigars and candy were taken in abundance, but the amount stolen was not reported to the authorities.
It is believed that they took what they wanted, and then left.

No more is heard of the thieves until after the morning train went east. At that time Agent Brock was at the office of the Adams express company, and found that every thing was as usual. When dawn came it was discovered that the gang had paid the place a visit. The front door had been pried open as usual, and a thorough search made for such valuables as could be secured. Some postage stamps and a few dollars in small change was all they got for their trouble there, and they departed.

The saloon of Jacob Freistoffer on Washington street was given a friendly call, but from there the burglars retreated in haste. A bed, occupied by a boarder, is placed near a window at the rear of the place, and the gang made the attack at this point. Believing themselves secure, they broke the glass, rousing the man and causing him to cry out. Going to the window, he discovered the crowd, but they were flying in all directions before he could give the alarm. So far as could be learned this was the extent of the attempts for that time, and chased by the rising sun, the men probably sought their homes, if they happen to be residents of the city.

At an early hour this morning Breinstien & Eberstein, the men who are engaged in the saloon business at the place where Hyman Browarsky became famous, heard someone in the cellar. They did not go to investigate, but waited until morning when a thorough search was made.
Nothing was found missing, but they believe there was some one there without legal authority for their presence.

This morning Chief Gill was informed that the office at Brunt's Knob pottery had been visited during the night. It was simply a rumor.

At the freight depot a window on the north side of the office was forced, and the gang entered. The desk of an employee seemed the object of attack, and a portion of the handle of a drawer was broken in the effort to force it open, and the wood around the lock showed where a knife had been used. The watchbox occupied by Watchman Williams was another place entered. Here they attempted to get into a closet, but they obtained nothing. An attempt was made to get into Stoffel's saloon, but here again they were unable to get anything. It was rumored that the Mountford and Cartwright potteries were also entered, but nothing was known of it at the offices.

THE Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

Reverend Thompson Was Greeted by an Appreciative Audience.

There was good singing at the rooms Sunday afternoon. The regular quartette always makes joyous melody, thoroughly appreciated. There was a notably fine attendance of young men yesterday. W. R. Thompson, of High Ridge, addressed the meeting, taking the life and character of Joshua, the warrior saint, as his subject, and delivering an instructive and eloquent address. The Young Men's Christian association is doing a good work in East Liverpool, and has been instrumental, in the hands of God, in saving more than one young man and keeping him aloof from the saloons, and kindred evil associations. The association has, at its head, in official positions, men of intelligence and sterling character and worth, and they are using every honorable effort to place the society in such a condition that it will not be hampered with the nightmare of debt. We bespeak for the organization the aid and material assistance of every man and woman who desires to see the youth of our land saved from evil practices and the curse of sinful, depraved companionship. The Young Men's Christian association builds a pathway which leads young men into Christian churches.

Bad Boys and Girls.

Moral suasion is a good thing in its place, and loving persuasion and kindness often accomplishes the point aimed at. But there are young hoodlums, in the shape of bad boys and bad girls, upon whom kindness and moral suasion has about as much effect as has water upon a duck's back. In such cases common sense comes in play, and the hoodlums are compelled to obey and behave. The conservators of order now on duty in some of our city churches demonstrate this fact beyond successful contradiction. The hoodlums, male and female, are now on their good behavior.

A Good Kicker.

As a well-known gentleman, connected with the city water works, was passing along Fourth street on Sunday evening, accompanied by his two little children, they in turn accompanied by the pet pug of the household, a large dog, part bird and part cur, sprang on the innocent pug and commenced to worry and tear it. The little ones cried, and tried "moral suasion," attempting to coax the big brute away from his prey. But the angry parent, cognizant of the eternal fitness of things in general, practiced common sense, and kicked the cur clean out into the middle of the street.

Ministers in Session.

At the meeting of ministers this morning Reverends Taggart, Huston and Whitehead were appointed a committee to formulate a plan for the organization of a citizens' league, and Reverend Whitehead was sent as a delegate to the anti-saloon congress in Columbus. It was also recommended that all Sunday schools hold their treats on Christmas night. Reverend Whitehead read a paper on "Christian Citizenship."

Making Fast Time.

Complaint is made that passenger trains fly through the West End at a rate which far exceeds the speed provided for in city ordinances. There may be a complaint to the mayor in the near future.

DRUNKS OLD AND NEW

Brought Before Mayor Gilbert
Today.

DEBTS TO EX-MAYOR MORLEY

Are Being Paid by the Unfortunates Who Have Long Been on the Wrong Side of the Book—Two Fighters, One Drunk, and an Arrest For Disorderly Conduct.

For some unaccountable reason Saturday night was one of those occasions when the police have their hands full taking care of offenders, and the cooler is crowded with those who break the law.

Willis Babb and Jonathan Allison were drunk on Saturday night.
They became involved in some difficulty on Market street when Odleys Welsh and Badgley were too near.
Before the battle could begin in earnest the policemen had each captured a man, and had them safely locked up. Each was fined $7.75 by Mayor Gilbert, and the amounts were collected yesterday morning.

Officer Welsh arrested Martin Russell in Jethro early Saturday evening because a row was in progress in that part of the city. When he got his prisoner to city hall he found that Mary Boyle had been there, and made a charge of assault and battery against Russell. When the mayor heard the circumstances connected with the case he induced a change in the charge to disorderly conduct and assessed Russell $7.60, which was paid.

Thomas Cartwright was a plain drunk when gathered in by Officers Wyman and Supplee near Mountford's pottery at an early hour yesterday morning. He had no money, but gave Mayor Gilbert an order for $6.00 the amount of his assessment.

Theodore Peppin, one of the men connected with the gambling scrape last week, was captured by Officer Jennings in the Diamond. He acknowledged his guilt, and gave security for $7.50, the amount levied by the mayor.

The movement for the collection of fines still due the city from Mayor Morley's administration goes steadily on, and one by one the unfortunates are realizing that forbearance has long since ceased to be the virtue some people believe. Robert Brown was caught by Officer Supplee, Saturday night, and when reminded of what was opposite his name on the books, cheerfully paid Mayor Gilbert. Chip Gamble was another whose credit had long ago passed the first-class rating.
When the officer notified him that he owed $7.50, he acknowledged the debt, but could not pay. Henry Houser was also convinced, but he gave an order for $10.70 and was released.

Chief Gill and the entire force were on duty all of Saturday night and until 3 o'clock this morning.

A Clever Reminder.

Reverend Huston made a nice hit from the pulpit on Sunday morning when he referred to the youngsters in his congregation as follows: "I am very glad to see so many children here this morning. I am glad to see those downstairs occupying the front seats.
I am glad to see that a number of them have had the audacity to go up into the gallery, where they can be plainly seen, and where they say, by their action, 'You will see that we can behave ourselves as well as any of you.' You see, the pastor put the youngsters on their honor."

Laugh, Enjoy Health.

You will find a golden opportunity to smile audibly on Thursday night, Dec. 13, at the First Methodist Episcopal church, when Reverend J. M.
Huston, D. D., the eloquent pulpit orator, will deliver his celebrated humorous lecture on "Mao." This lecture has been given before large audiences, and has won golden opinions from press and people. You cannot afford to miss it, and you should see to it that your lady friends are given an opportunity to smile in conjunction with yourself.

Tramcar Work.

The city has been overrun with trampslately and they are of the bold variety. Last night about 7 o'clock the night watchman at the Standard pottery discovered three travelers tearing boards from the straw shed alongside the plant. They wanted a warm bed for the night, but the patrol was called and they made tracks and got away. A gang built a fire on the beach above the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery last night, and made night hideous in that section.

Burning By Meter.

The electric light company have decided to have their customers burn by meter where this is possible, and Mr.
Beam, of the Edison General Electric company, is here to put them in. The new contract does not provide a price for the meter, but compels the party using it to pay a stipulated rate for which power is actually consumed.

The saving is expected to be sufficient for company and customer to permit a day service where it is needed.

AFTER $10,000.

Another Big Damage Suit Filed in Court.

Special to the News Review.

New Lisbon, Dec. 10.—R. W. Tayler and C. R. Roswell filed a petition today which places another $10,000 damage case on the docket.

The defendant is the East Palestine Coal company, and the suit is brought for the next kin to Thomas Stoves, a boy who was killed in the mine in March 1893. The petition says that the boy was a trapper in the mine, and was sent by the boss driver to look after some loaded cars. While in a dangerous position the cars were started, and the boy was killed.

Frank McPherson Dead.

Frank, son of the late Andrew Mc-Pherson, died at his home on the Lisbon road about three miles from this city at 10 o'clock Saturday night, after an illness with consumption.
Deceased was aged 32 years and unmarried. Two brothers, Charles and Morrison, reside in this city, and John McPherson in Wichita, Kansas. The funeral took place from the late home of the deceased with interment in Yellow Creek cemetery at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Elmer Ralston and the brothers of the deceased attended from here.

No Poison There.

Special to the News Review.

SALEM, Dec. 10.—It is reported here that the chemical analysis of the stomach of Mrs. Frank Mahoney fails to show the presence of any poison whatever, and what was predicted as a sensational murder case falls very flat. Mahoney was still in jail this morning, as the mayor had received no word from Coroner Straughlin, and he had been instructed by Prosecutor Speaker to hold Mahoney until that arrived.

M. E. Church Reception.

The reception to Reverend Huston and his wife will take place at the Methodist Episcopal church tonight.
The committee in charge of affairs have arranged a pleasing program, and an enjoyable time is anticipated.
A cordial invitation is extended to each and every member of the church, and to the public in general. Reception from 8 to 8:30. Musical program from 8:30 to 9:30.

Some Notable Attractions.

E. M. Crosser, chairman of the lecture committee of the Young Men's Christian association, is devoting a large portion of his attention to the next number, a concert to be given by local talent. Among the most notable attractions will be a talented singer from Cleveland, and a young lady from Akron who has a reputation as an elocutionist.

Almost a Row.

The first attempt at trouble between the union and non-union tin mill workers at Irontide occurred Saturday night. Both sides had plenty of beer, five kegs having been sent from Wellsville for some of the parties. Two lines of men about 25 in all were drawn up for battle just as Mayor Paisley arrived on the scene and secured aid.

Created a Commotion.

A lady, who refused to give her name, created a commotion on Fifth street last Saturday evening by declaring that she had lost her pocketbook. A number of persons were kind enough to aid in the search, which had proceeded some time before the woman discovered that the precious wallet was in her market basket.

No Game This Year.

The foot ball team of the Wells-ville high school challenged the Phoenix club to a game Christmas afternoon on the West End grounds.
The Phoenix club was compelled to decline since its athletic organization has fallen into decay since the base ball season ended.

Adding New Members.

Doctor Lee held his first communion at the First Presbyterian church yesterday, one of the largest congregations of the year being in attendance.
A number of persons were received into membership.

Cases Continued.

The boarding house cases of Adolphus Hadley and Herbert Bright were continued in Squire Travis' court today until Monday next. The case of Charles McMillan has been settled.

MURDERED AND ROBBED

Thought to be the Fate of Frank Lenz.

LETTERS FROM THE ORIENT

Received This Morning by J. J. Purinton.
Gives Expresses—An English Consul Gives His Opinion—A Missionary Hopes For the Best.

J. J. Purinton received word from Turkey this morning which prompts the belief that Frank Lenz with all his pluck could not successfully stand against the Kurdish tribes of the Persian border.

One letter, dated Nov. 9, comes from the British consul at Erroom and tells the following story:

DEAR SIR—I am in receipt of your letter of the 8th inst., inquiring as to the fate of your relative, Mr. Frank Lenz, that being the first intimation I had received of his attempted adventurous journey. From private inquiries which I have made, I learn that a traveler, answering in all respects to Mr. Lenz's description, passed the Turkish frontier at Kizil Dagh, near Bayazid, coming from Tabriz, some time in the month of May, last. He continued his journey after a short halt, and from that moment nothing more has been heard of him. The agent of Messrs. Zeigler & Co., here, received a letter from his Tabriz correspondents advising him to honor a draft for 10 pounds which would be presented to him by Mr.
Lenz, but the draft was never presented. I have requested the governor general of this province to make careful inquiries for Mr. Lenz along the route he should have followed, and to take whatever measures may be necessary in consequence. But I fear that there can be little doubt but that your relative must have been robbed and made away with somewhere in the dangerous districts of Bayazid or Alashgerd, and that it will be difficult now to clear up the mystery of his disappearance. It is most unfortunate that I was not warned in time of Mr. Lenz's rash intentions, and should have protested against his uselessly risking his life by traveling alone a region which was comparatively safe at the time of Messrs. Allen and Sachtleben's journey, and is now swarming with heavily armed and ferocious brigand bands.
I will not fail to inform you of the result of any of my further inquiries, and remain, with deep regret at the sad and unsatisfactory nature of my news, yours respectfully.

R. W. Graves.

H. R. M. Consul for Kurdistan.
The other is from W. N. Chamberlain, a missionary at that place, and was written on Nov. 16, although both were received here on the same date.
He had made inquiries, he writes, and had written a friend near the border, but nothing had yet been heard. Reverend Chamberlain hopes for the best, but he has grave forebodings, because of the turbulent condition of the Kurdish nomadic tribes of the country between that city and the border during the summer. Wandering bands of brigands have made traveling dangerous even when the government gave its protection, and the tone of the letter seems anything but cheerful. After the first part of the letter was written he saw the English consul, and learned that Lenz had been seen a few hours journey from their side of the border on May 7.

While there may be some encouraging news for the future it seems now that Lenz has been captured near the Turkish border, and in all probability murdered, or is being held an unwilling captive.

Selling His Possessions.

THE MISTAKEN IDEA.

Until the Democrats won the election which gave them control of the national government there were several million people in this country who believed that there was something in the doctrine of tariff reform, but it would be a hard matter to find an intelligent man today who will think over the events of the past few months and imagine that a low tariff or no tariff amounts to as much as a row of pins.

Throw away every question regarding the panic; forget that thousands of men are out of employment; do not remember that dozens of mills stand idle in the land. Think only of the living principle that before money can be spent it must be earned, or the individual with extravagant tastes will eventually reach the end of his credit, and be compelled to suffer all the ignominy of a bankrupt. So it is with Uncle Sam. It costs him many millions to maintain his government, and without the cash he cannot forever go on borrowing. Since Cleveland and Carlisle assumed control of the treasury, and their faithful lieutenants began to move in the direction of tariff reform, the country has been going into debt. Deeper and deeper the nation has been plunged until all precedent is passed, and the people are burdened with more obligations than they can with comfort contemplate. When Grover Cleveland entered the white house for the first time his mind was filled with schemes for the disposition of the surplus. Now he is endeavoring to evolve some plan whereby he can scrape together enough money to keep the government wheels moving, even if he is compelled to borrow every day in the week to do it. In the vernacular of the street he is a "high roller" in every sense of the word. Yet how easy for Grover Cleveland and his congress to sleep at night without a thought of deficit or accumulating debt. What a pleasant existence compared with what they now live, provided they give the subject a pleasant thought, such as produced by the abandonment of their cherished dreams of free trade. From duties levied upon imports came the vast amount of money required to pay expenses, and when that was cut down by the repeal of the McKinley law the country became embarrassed.
Gold flowed to Europe, and as none came in Uncle Sam found that he must borrow. When he could not earn it honestly he was compelled to seek such aid as he could find. The result is known to every reader of the secular press. This great financier, our president, says in his message that he will borrow whenever the country needs it, and there is no one to say him nay because all men know that in present circumstances it is absolutely necessary. But why these circumstances? Why make it necessary for the president to sell $50,000,000 in bonds when he believes the nation needs money? Why will he, if he be a patriot, adhere to that principle which will suck the life blood from the American public, and toss the whitened corpse upon the barren hillside of the land? Why is there not some power to compel this self appointed potentate to yield to the demands of the people and order a protective tariff law? There is a power.
The greatest ruler on earth, the public opinion of America, will issue an order in a few years which will lay Grover Cleveland on the shelf, and place in his position a statesman and a financier.

HOT FIGHT EXPECTED.

Acrimonious Debate Probable on the Income Tax.

APPROPRIATION TO BE OPPOSED

Tomorrow the Fate of the Railroad Pooling Bill Will Be Decided in the House.
Precedence of Senate Bills Being Decided Today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—This week, it the house, promises to witness a fierce struggle over the income tax. In connection with the appropriation to be incorporated in the collection of the tax which begins Jan. 1, 1895, Mr. Sayres chairman of the appropriations committee, intends to call up the bill tomorrow after the railroad pooling bill is disposed of. Mr. Bartlett of New York is at the head of the opposition to the appropriation, and although the opposition is no considered strong enough to defeat the appropriation, it is expected that the debate will abound with acrimonious references to the late election and that much bad blood will be manifested.
The consideration of the income tax appropriation may consume several days.
Today is District of Columbia day and tomorrow the fate of the pooling bill will be decided, as Mr. Patterson, in charge of the measure, has given notice that at 3 o'clock tomorrow he will demand the previous question. The general opinion is that the bill will not pass as reported, but will probably be re-amended as to give to the interstate commerce commission absolute control of the conditions of railroad pooling and final authority in the matter of revoking pooling orders.

As soon as the urgent deficiency bill, which will follow, is out of the way, it is the intention of the appropriation committee to bring forward the fortification appropriation bill. The Nicaragua canal bill will not be brought up this week. Thursday next, according to notice already served, Mr. Brown, chairman of the elections committee, will call up the North Carolina contest election case of Williams vs. Settle.
The Democratic steering committee is holding a meeting today to decide whether the Nicaragua canal bill, the bankruptcy bill, the New Mexico and Arizona bills, the Indian Territory bill or the resolution for the election of senators by the people shall have precedence in the senate. It is not supposed by anyone that the proposed currency bill will be given first place for the reason that no currency bill has yet been formulated. The friends of the other bills will unquestionably press their respective measures, and it is as yet impossible to say which of the bills mentioned will receive preference.

Routine business is being disposed of in the senate today. After it is finished, Senator Morgan is expected to speak on the Nicaragua canal bill. The speech made, the decision of the steering committee will probably be allowed to control as to whether the canal bills shall continue to receive attention or shall be disposed by one of the other favored measures.

THE NEW JAP TREATY

Many Advantageous Clauses to Both Japan and the United States.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The full text of the new treaty between the United States and Japan has been the main subject of comment in diplomatic and official circles. All previous treaties have been based on the theory that the relies of eastern barbarism still remained with Japan. Running through out the new treaty are the concessions recognizing her courts and laws as ample for Americans as well as natives.
This is the chief feature of the treaty.
The old consular courts, in which United States consuls tried cases at Japanese treaty ports, are abandoned. In stead of them all cases, civil and criminal, in which an American is concerned, will be tried by the native courts. The right of Japan to make her own tariff laws is also recognized. Heretofore the United States has been free to make

BLIXT SHOT THE GIRL.

He Tells Two Stories About Miss Ging's Murder.

HARRY HAYWARD PLANNED IT.

The Janitor First Says Hayward Killed the Girl and He Disposed of the Body.
Later He Admits That He Fired the Fatal Shot Himself.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 10.—A. B. BLIXT, the janitor of the Ozark flats, has confessed that he fired the shot that killed Catherine Ging, the dressmaker, for which Harry T. Hayward, Adry Hayward, Blix and a man named Erickson, are in jail.

These four men were arrested on the confession of Adry Hayward, that his brother planned the murder for the purpose of getting the insurance on Miss Ging's life.

Blix first said that Harry Hayward offered him money to murder the girl, and that he refused to do it. Then Hayward got him to burn a barn, and by this scheme got a hold on him. Hayward took a ride with the girl several times, determined to kill her himself with an iron bar, but never got a good opportunity. He then coerced Blix into agreeing to help him by hiding the body.

Blix followed out his instructions to the letter. He left the car at Lake street and ran across to the point of intersection of that street and the Excelsior road. He had been there about five minutes when he heard a shot and saw a carriage approach. As it drew up he recognized Hayward as the driver.
Hayward said to him: "It is all done.
Jump in and drive slowly and give me plenty of time to get back to town, and do not leave her until you make sure she is dead."

Hayward got out of the buggy and Blix got in. The woman was on the left hand side and the laprobe was thrown over her, completely covering her. He drove along the Excel-sior road to the point, he says, about one mile behind where the body was found, then turning around, he drove back over the road. Upon reaching the spot where the body was found, he stopped, and alighting from the buggy, passed behind it to the left side. He says he pulled the woman's foot out of its buggy box and that the body slid of its own weight, and the laprobe came to the point, he says, about one mile be-

A. F. OF L. CONVENTION.

Fourteenth Annual Meeting Opens In Denver.

IMPORTANT MATTERS TO COME UP.

Establishment of a National Labor Commission to be considered—Silver Men may make a fight on Comptroller. Bureau and Holmes are there.

DENVER, Dec. 10.—The fourteenth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor opened this morning at the old chamber of commerce building. The address of welcome was made by R. D. Kennehan and President Samuel Gompers responded. A committee on credentials was appointed. T. M. Patterson made an address on "Labor's Fight for Noble Struggles." Speeches were also made by John Burns and David Holmes, delegates from the British trades unions.

The matters that will come before the convention will be of supreme interest to labor throughout the entire country.

PRESIDENT SAMUEL GOMPERS.

One of the issues is the establishment of a national labor commission of 15, composed of five from the agricultural interests, five from the labor organizations and five from the manufacturing interests. This idea has been broached and it is thought by some who have studied the labor question closely that the creation by congress of a commission of this character would go far toward adjusting the difficulties that arise between capital and labor, and preventing strikes. A strong effort will be made also to secure the endorsement of an unequivocal silver resolution. A silver resolution of a general non-committal character was adopted at the Chicago convention last year, but it was not sufficiently pronounced to suit the views of the western delegates.

It has been rumored that a strong effort will be made to commit the Federation to a number of socialistic and anarchistic resolutions, but any such intention is discredited by the local delegates, who are thoroughly familiar with the program which will be carried out. The trades assembly have adopted a platform to the Federation of Labor, embodying an eight-hour work day, compulsory education, sanitary inspection of workshop, mine and home; liability of employers for injury to health, body or life; abolition of the contract system in all public work; abolition of the sweating system; municipal ownership of street cars and gas and electric plants for public distribution of light, heat and power; the nationalization of telegraphs, telephones, railroads and mines; the principal of referendum in all legislation.

There is no doubt but that a severe struggle will occur when the election of officers takes place. Samuel Gompers, president of the organization is a candidate for re-election. John McBride, president of the Mine Workers' union, is considered a strong candidate, and is said to have a large following. Other candidates will likely come from the front before the election takes place. It is believed that Secretary McGuire of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and General Secretary Christensen will find a strong opposition against their election to any office as they are with Gompers responsible for the action of the Federation last summer in Chicago, in refusing to recommend sympathy strikes in Chicago in support of the American Railway Union railroad strikes. The main opinion of the west against Gompers is that he is a New York man and is said to oppose the present officers of the Federation will be re-elected. While Samuel Gompers pulled through with a very slender majority last year, he has made many friends since then, notwithstanding the many different reports about his cautious action during the Chicago strike.

In addition to the large attendance expected from this country, a number of labor champions from abroad are present to address the meeting. Among them are the great English leader, John Burns, M. P., one of the best known men in the labor world. With John Burns will be David Holmes of Burnley, president of the Textile Workers' National Union of Great Britain. It is expected that the Frenchmen, Isidor Finance and "Legordier," widely known on the continent of Europe for their labors in behalf of the workingmen, will address the Federation before it adjourns.

The Charges Against the South Carolina Not True.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 10.—The charges made against the honesty of Governor Tillman in a letter from B. F. Perry to J. Ashley, a member of the house of representatives of this state which was recently distributed here have brought forth an answer from the governor. In the letter referred to it was insinuated that Governor Tillman could not save from his salary a sufficient sum to pay for a farm he recently purchased, and for which he is said to have given $8,000, asserted that he had defrauded the state of thousands of dollars and had received a 7 cent rebate on whisky bought through the dispensary law.

The reply to these charges was made by Governor Tillman through W. A. Clark, president of the Carolina National bank. He shows mortgages and notes enough to cover the money spent by Tillman. In all the places raided, with the exception of one, it was found that there was not provided the breathing space required by law, which is 100 feet of air space for each person. The health department will begin proceedings against the proprietors of the shops.

Holes were torn through the floor, windows and doors were blown down, but the unsavory characters were in the opposite end of the house, narrowly escaping being blown to pieces.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Council meets in regular session tomorrow evening, and as there is any quantity of important business to transact, a session of interest is anticipated.

Communion service in the Second United Presbyterian church, East End, yesterday was largely attended. The certificate of a former elder, D. F. White, of Mechanicstown, was added to the membership roll of the church.

Funeral services over the remains of Samuel Thomas were held at the late home of the deceased, West Market street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, many potters attending the services. The remains were laid to rest in Riverview cemetery.

Complaint was made at the mayor's office that a boy named Hughes was constantly abusing Rex, the little grandson of William Seaton, of Seventh street. The complainant was told that Hughes would be arrested if he repeated the offense.

A call at the home of Ex-mayor George Morley this afternoon was answered by the pleasing intelligence that the gentleman was much improved from his condition of Saturday. Partial paralysis still remains. Mrs. Morley has been ill for some time, but is slowly recovering.

The Rechabites, senior ladies and junior tents, to the number of over 200 attended services in the Christian church, marching from their hall in a body. Reverend C. W. Huffer preached a total abstinence sermon from start to finish, and interested his hearers with a brief history of the order here.

J. E. McDonald smiled when he was shown an item in a local paper stating that the franchise of the bridge company has expired, and another would have to be secured before work can proceed. He smiled because the right does not expire until the day after Christmas, according to the ordinance.

Several witnesses accompanied the attorneys to New Lisbon this morning on the case of J. D. West versus the East Liverpool & Wellsville street railway and the city of East Liverpool. Attorney J. H. Brookes represents the plaintiff, Colonel Hill the electric line and Solicitor Clark the city. The action is one for damages.

The funeral of Lawrence Scott, the unfortunate colored man whose death resulted Friday from an accident, took place at 2 p. m. Sunday from the family residence in Sunny-side. A large crowd attended the services, as the deceased was well known throughout the city. The remains were interred in Spring Grove cemetery.

An amusing sight on East Market street yesterday was that of a couple of Chinese laundrymen. One was trying to wheel the other in a wheelbarrow, and was not acquainted with the machine. It became overbalanced and dumped its Celestial rider into the street so many times that the crowd watching was kept in a continual roar of laughter.

Clerks in an uptown shoe store are thinking of petitioning council to enforce an ordinance requiring boys to be in bed not later than 10 o'clock each night. This is due to the haggard appearance and slow motion of a fellow clerk who has been visiting a particular lady friend each night for three weeks, and they fear he is being hurried to an early grave.

There was fun in the engine house of the water works the other morning. During the night some unknown individual was so unkind as to put shoe-maker's wax in the overalls of the day crew and a number of bricklayers at work on the boilers. Then the pants were held before the fire until the wax had sealed the openings as firmly as if cement was used. Later in the day a foul-smelling powder was liberally distributed in hats about the place. If the joker is caught, the employers will smite him, hip and thigh.

There has been little progress in improvements at city hall lately, due to the fact that some of the interested parties want the partition between the recently vacated clerk's office and the newly furnished room moved back several feet. Others evidently do not approve of the plan, as the carpenters have received no instructions to do such work. Some unknown party tore a portion of the paper and muslin from the partition, probably to encourage the change in the position of the wall. Council will likely act upon this question at the next meeting.

Most of the electric cars are equipped with bells on both ends and they are usually in good working order, but there was an exception to the rule Saturday. Owing to the break in the wires a car was being run backwards, and a lady passenger desired to alight at Fourth street. She pulled the bell cord in vain, and as the coach continued down the hill several passengers made desperate attempts to attract the motorman's attention but to no avail. At the Second street switch the lady went to the door and there was fun. The motorman felt satisfied that it was not his fault, as did the passengers.

SOUSA'S DISCIPLINE.

General Schofield's Funny Break as to the Conduct of an Orchestra.

How Conductor Sousa was taken to task by General Schofield for his lack of discipline is told by the San Francisco Chronicle.

The last echo of one of Sousa's overtures was just dying away over the sand hills south of the fair grounds when General Schofield stepped in front of the band and saluted the distinguished leader. Sousa returned the salute and sent one of his men to escort the general up into the band stand.

"That music was beautiful—beautiful," exclaimed the general as he shook Sousa's hand warmly. "I am astonished, sir, that you get such results with so little discipline."

There is nothing that Sousa prides himself more on than being one of the strictest of disciplinarians, and he was naturally nettled at the general's criticism.

"Why, general, my men are under perfect control. I'm sure they are thoroughly drilled, and I can hardly believe that there is any lack of discipline. I have never noticed it."

"No, that's just it; you don't see it," persisted the general. "I saw it, though. Do you know that as soon as you turn your back on one side of your band to shake your baton at the other those fellows all quit playing? Of course you don't see it, for as soon as you turn around they begin again."

The fun in this, at the expense of the general, lies, of course, in the fact that when a section of Sousa's men became silent as he turned to the other was when the music so required. But the general looked upon this lapse as he would upon the suspension of a section of his artillery when he turned his attention to another part of the field.

A Revolt Against Labor Leaders.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 10.—The engineers and firemen of the Atlantic and Pacific railway have engaged an attorney to look after their interests. They say they have become tired of paying the grand officers of their organizations $10,000 to $20,000 a year in addition to heavy local dues, as in time of trouble the officers have taken sides with the company, and on account of the discharge of men on account of the American Railway union without hearing their claims.

Big Fire In the West Indies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Dutch steamer Prince William III has arrived from the West Indies, touching at Port au Prince, on Dec. 3. She brings news of a big fire that broke out there on Nov. 30 at 4 p. m., in the poorer quarter of the city, which is on an elevated site. More than 100 dwelling houses were destroyed before the firemen succeeded in subduing the flames. No lives were lost.

A Bank Cashed Abroad.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 10.—Albert Whipple, cashier of the Crawford Bank company, at Crawford, Neb., has ascended and the bank is closed. He has had several government contracts at Fort Robinson and Omaha. #### THE FIRST ORDER.

The Eagle Hardware Company Gets a Big Contract.

And again East Liverpool comes to the front in the line of enterprise and push. We have become known all over the land for the excellence of the pottery manufactured here, and our city is famous in this particular, not only on this side of the big pond, but in almost all civilized nations. And now one of our establishments, the Eagle Hardware company, has received the order for furnishing the supplies for the school of ceramics in the State University of Ohio.

We are glad to note that this home establishment has had the good fortune to receive this order, in the hot competition which they have contended with, for they are fully deserving of any and every success which may come to them. The East Liverpool branch of the company has done and is doing a thriving business, under the able control and management of T. V. Milligan, Jr. In fact, the business transacted has reached such proportions that it was found necessary to open up a business house in our sister city of Wellsville, placing F. W. Milligan in control thereof.

Both branches carry heavy and complete supplies for potteries and mills, ever ready, on short notice, to fill any and every order entrusted to their care.

In the line of holiday goods, these houses stand without a rival in Eastern Ohio. They show the largest and most complete assortment of banquet and stand lamps, aluminum ware, nickel plated ware, agate ware, carving sets, cutlery, silver plated ware, penknives, nut cracks and picks, carpet sweepers, shot guns, rifles, and in fact, any and every article common to a first class hardware establishment. And one other feature which you will be pleased to note, lies in the fact that the Eagle Hardware company can and will furnish you these goods at prices which are sure to please and profit you, and fully as low, if not lower than the leading hardware establishments in foreign cities.

Gas fireplace goods and stoves and ranges are made a special feature of by the Eagle Hardware company. If you desire anything in these lines, it will certainly repay you if you call at Nos. 134 and 136 Fifth street, East Liverpool, or in the public square, Wellsville.

Doctor Howard.

Doctor Lawrence Howard, who has been in our city for the past two weeks, made many warm friends during his stay. He gave great relief to a large number of patients, men, women and children afflicted with partial paralysis, acute rheumatism and kindred diseases, and if the relief proves to be permanent, numerous persons will have just cause to be thankful to him. Doctor Mazzini, his genial assistant, is a clever, courteous and agreeable gentleman, a brilliant conversationalist and the possessor of an unlimited store of rich and racy anecdotes, and he is ably backed up by F. L. Flewelling, Howard's active advance agent. Mrs. Howard, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. J. Reed, left for Saratoga Springs, N. Y., this morning, where the ladies will remain for the next few weeks, rejoining the doctor at Cleveland, after his professional call at Steubenville.

A State Officer.

J. S. Burt, deputy great commander for Ohio, Knights of the Maccabees, will be here on Monday to remain for a time working in the interests of the order. The gentleman is an able talker, and will soon call on you to explain the beauties of the Maccabees as a beneficial order.

Ripans Tabules purify the blood.

Pull off with starch and glass serene. The linen collar starts the morn. Pull off at noontime it is seen. All wilted, wrinkled and forlorn.

That's what you must expect of such a collar; it's the linen of it. The stand-up collars won't stand up, and the turn-down collars will wilt down. The easy, cheap, and pleasant way out of this is to wear "CELLULOID" COLLARS AND CUFFS. These goods are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with "CELLULOID," thus making them strong and durable, and waterproof, not affected by heat or moisture. There are no other waterproof goods made this way, consequently none that can wear so well. When soiled simply wipe them off with a wet cloth. Every piece of the genuine is stamped like this:

Insist upon goods so marked if you expect full satisfaction, and if your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us enclosing amount and we will mail sample. State size and whether a stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair. THE CELLULOID COMPANY

HIS NOVEL THEORY OF TIDES.

Uncle Alvah Dunning Thinks the Old World "Slashes" Around.

Uncle Alvah Dunning, the hermit of the Adirondacks, maintains that the earth is not round like a ball, but as flat as a pancake, or, at best, that it resembles a milk pan, with enough of an edge to it to keep the water from running away.

A number of guests at Charlie Bennett's "Antlers," on Raquette lake, were discussing the theory with Uncle Alvah one day during the hunting season. One of them undertook the altogether hopeless task of convincing the old man of the error of his belief. Among other things he called attention to the tides.

"Uncle Alvah," he said, "you've heard of tides, haven't you? How do you account for them if the world isn't round?"

The old man remained silent for awhile and then drawled forth, "Waal, I hev some idee as to 'em."

"What is it, then?" asked the questioner, while all the sportsmen drew near to await the answer. Uncle Alvah was not to be hurried, and after another pause he remarked:

"Did ye ever turn over in bed? I think's more than likely."

"Yes, I've turned over in bed."

"Do ye sleep 'tween sheets?"

"Always," replied the questioner laughingly. "What's that got to do with it?"

"It's got all to do with it, in my opinion. When you went over, didn't the bedclothes kind o' slip round an slish round an didn't get there same time as you did?"

"Yes."

"Waal, that's my idee of the tides. The old earth sort o' slips round under the water like a man under the bedclothes, or it teeters a bit, like when you tip a milkpan. The water don't get there quite as fast as the land, an that's what makes the tides."—New York Herald.
